

Rehabilitation of Disorders of Consciousness: From Coma to Community

Disorders of Consciousness (DoC) are complex neurological conditions from severe brain injury resulting in vegetative or minimally conscious states.

Learn the latest evidence-based treatments, multidisciplinary rehabilitation strategies, advanced assessment techniques, brain stimulation methods, and socio-legal considerations to optimise patient outcomes across acute to community settings.

TOPICS & SPEAKERS

DoC: Nomenclature, Evolution and Clinical Practice guidelines

DR RATHI D/O RATHA KRISHNAN
Principal Resident Physician
Rehabilitation Medicine
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Brain stimulation for DoC: Invasive vs non-invasive?

DR LO YU TUNG JACK
Chief Resident
National Neuroscience Institute
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Coma assessments and Sensory regulation protocols

MS NICOLE NEO YUN
Senior Occupational Therapist
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Nursing best practices for managing patients with DoC

MS LI YUNLI
Nurse Clinician
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Tracheostomy management from ST perspective - communication, swallowing and speaking valve use

MS MELINDA LIM
Principal Speech Therapist
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Socio-legal considerations in the care of patients with DoC

MS LIN JINGYI
Principal Medical Social Worker
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

Evidence-based physiotherapy and spasticity management

MS AMELIA HO CHUI YI
Senior Physiotherapist
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

MODERATOR

CLIN A/PROF KAREN CHUA
Senior Consultant
Rehabilitation Medicine
Tan Tock Seng Hospital

30 January 2026
1:00PM – 5.30PM
TTSH THEATRETTE
LEVEL I

SGD $50

SCAN
HERE

or visit
<https://for.sg/rehab-doc-2026>

CME/CPE points
will be accredited

ORGANISED BY:

Institute of Rehabilitation Excellence

For any enquiries, kindly contact IREx@ttsh.com.sg

 Tan Tock Seng Hospital
NHG Health