In wake of 2 deaths, TPCS explains how doctors treat suspected cases

BY SALIMA VAKIL

TPCS Town Council (TPSC), when asked yesterday why its 60-year-old victim lived, accord-

The hospital added that its sys-

■ Hypertension had complicated this infection, and “may have dressing complications such as dengue-

■ The virus can also affect the blood-brain barrier, leading to critical stage: bleeding, delirium,

■ In a statement last night, the discuss how doctors treat suspected cases.

■ In wake of 2 deaths, TTSH explains

■ When contacted, the town council said it would step up calls the affected block, includ-

■ TPCS Town Council (TPCS), when asked yesterday why its 60-year-old victim lived, accord-

■ For some, this can be the crucial time when bleeding occurs. If not,

■ This result in red blood cell

■ Reduced blood supply to the to clots. This might

■ The Ministry of Health said the day on the dengue front.

■ We will carry this weekly update until the
day on the dengue front.

■ We will carry this weekly update until the
day on the dengue front.

■ For some, this can be the crucial
time when bleeding occurs. If not,

■ For some, this can be the crucial
time when bleeding occurs. If not,

■ The hospital said the dengue

■ Mr Seng Han Thong, MP for

■ TPCS Town Council (TPCS), when asked yesterday why its 60-year-old victim lived, accord-

■ The hospital said the dengue

■ The hospital said: “We

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The hospital said: “We

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the

■ The Ministry of Health said the